

Danielle's Law "A Future of Caring and Sharing"

Danielle J. Gruskowski
December 6, 1969 – November 5, 2002

Danielle Jeniese Gruskowski, a life long resident of Carteret and the inspiration for Danielle's Law, was born December 6, 1969, to Diane and Doug Gruskowski. Danielle was a beautiful baby girl who was welcomed into this world by a family that was excited to have their first child and very first grandchild. Danielle had two younger brothers, Douglas and Derek. Difficulty came at an early age. Danielle was developmentally disabled, non-verbal, non-ambulatory and was diagnosed with Rett Syndrome, a neurological disorder seen primarily in females. Rett Syndrome causes a delay or regression in development, including speech, hand skills, and coordination.

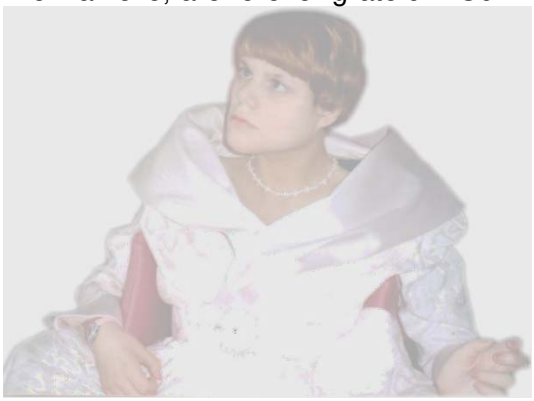

Danielle needed total care and help with daily activities. Despite her disability, she led a full and active life as a member of her family and of the Carteret community. In 1972, Danielle was a founder of the Carteret Specials, a unique group dedicated to enriching the lives of local children with special needs. The group is still active today.

At age 28, Danielle moved to a group home in nearby Edison, in the hope that the greater independence of adult living would benefit her in positive ways. Instead, on November 5, 2002, Danielle died tragically and needlessly at the age of 32. Although Danielle had been running an extremely high fever all night and was having difficulty breathing, no one at the facility called 911 to get her the help she most desperately needed. By the time Danielle was driven to a doctor's office the next morning, it was too late to revive her.

On May 18, 2003, family, friends and legislators gathered at a Dedication Ceremony at the Carteret Library to honor the memory of Danielle. A plaque hangs on the wall of the library so that the legacy of Danielle lives on and she will continue to be an inspiration to others.

Danielle's Law (A3458/S2572) was signed on October 26, 2003 by Governor James E. McGreevey during a very moving ceremony in Carteret. The law requires staff members working directly with people with developmental disabilities or traumatic brain injury to call 911 in life-threatening emergencies. Had the requirements of Danielle's Law been in place in November 2002, her caregivers would have been required to call 911 and Danielle's death might have been prevented.

Many lives will be saved because of Danielle's Law. Families who have loved ones that are developmentally disabled, especially the voiceless and helpless like Danielle, are forever grateful. Our family was amazed how much you can learn about life from someone who said so little and who was so helpless. Maybe that's a lesson for us all.

My family and I felt privileged to have Danielle as part of our loving family and we are so very grateful that God entrusted one of his "own" very special angels to our care. We miss Danielle very much and she will remain in our hearts forever. We were certainly blessed by a little girl named Danielle Jeniese Gruskowski.

Acknowledgement of Receipt of Information Regarding "Danielle's Law"

I have received the following information pertaining to Danielle's Law:

In accordance with Danielle's Law, 911 is to be called in life threatening emergencies. As defined in the law, "Life threatening emergency means a situation in which a prudent person could reasonably believe that immediate intervention is necessary to protect the life of a person receiving services, or to protect the lives of other persons at the facility or agency from an immediate threat or actual occurrence of a potentially fatal injury, impairment to bodily functions or dysfunction of a bodily organ or part."

Failure to call 911 in a life threatening emergency includes monetary fines: $5,000 for the first offense, $10,000 for the second offense, and $25,000 for the third and each subsequent offense. Additionally, a health care professional, licensed or alternately authorized to provide services, may be subject to revocation of that professional license or other authorization to practice as a health care professional.

I have received training on Danielle's Law including a Power Point Presentation on Danielle's Law, Frequently Asked Questions about Danielle's Law, a Fact Sheet on Life Threatening Emergencies, and a copy of Chapter 191, the actual Law.

I understand that it is my responsibility to call 911 if a person served by the Division of Developmental Disabilities is experiencing a life threatening emergency, as defined in Danielle's Law." I understand it is the responsibility of the emergency medical professionals to assess the severity of the emergency. My responsibility is to make the call to 911, provide information regarding the condition of the person, and direct emergency workers to the scene of the emergency. It is also my responsibility to provide immediate care until the emergency medical professionals arrive and take over.

The Stephen Komninos' Law - Public Law 2017, Chapter 238

The Stephen Komninos' Law was enacted in 2017 and strengthens protections for participants of any New Jersey Department of Human Services (DHS) funded, licensed or regulated program for adults with developmental disabilities, including State developmental centers and community programs. The law recognizes the important role of guardians and family members in the lives of adults with developmental disabilities and establishes greater communication links between providers and guardians.

When Does the Stephen Komninos' Law Take Effect?

Effective May 1, 2018, every person who is employed by or volunteering in any DHS-funded, licensed or regulated program serving adults with developmental disabilities is subject to the requirements of this law.

What Are the Requirements of the Stephen Komninos' Law?

DHS Site Visits

- Two unannounced site visits annually by a DHS representative to all community residential programs (group homes and supervised apartments) to evaluate if individuals residing in these settings are at risk of, or being subjected to, abuse, neglect or exploitation by a caregiver.

- Within residential community settings or DHS facility settings, verification within 48-hours by a DHS representative, of an incident or allegation reported to DHS involving abuse, neglect or exploitation or any moderate or major injury - regardless of the cause, involving an individual.

Guardian/Family Communication

- In community residential settings or day programs, notification in-person or by phone within two hours must be made by the service provider to an individual's guardian of all major, moderate and minor physical injury related to incidents or allegations of abuse, neglect or exploitation, or any moderate or major injury regardless of the cause. If there is no guardian, a family member who requests notification may be notified, unless the individual prohibits the family member from receiving this information. If there is a legitimate reason why the notification was not provided within two hours, it must be provided within eight hours with a written explanation of the cause for the delay provided to the guardian or family member and to DHS. Follow-up communication with the guardian or family member can be done via email/electronic communication. All other DHS policies regarding notifications to guardians remain in place. Guardian notification is still required for incidents or allegations involving abuse, neglect and exploitation, regardless of whether there is a resulting injury.

- In developmental centers, notification in-person or by telephone within two hours must be made by the center to an individual's guardian of all minor, moderate or major injury, regardless of the cause. If there is no guardian, a family member who requests notification may be notified, unless the individual prohibits the family member from receiving this information. If there is a legitimate reason why the notification was not provided within two hours, it must be provided within eight hours with a written explanation of the cause for the delay provided to the guardian or family member and to DHS. Follow-up communication with the guardian or family member can be done via email/electronic communication. All other DHS policies regarding notifications to guardians remain in place. Guardian notification is still required for incidents or allegations involving abuse, neglect and exploitation, regardless of whether there is a resulting injury.

- Each DHS developmental center will schedule meetings twice each year with parents and guardians of individuals to provide an opportunity to share experiences;

- Providing opportunities for parents and guardians of individuals residing in a community residential program, or participating in a day program to exchange contact information with other parents and guardians of individuals in program.

- A guardian may attend a DHS Office of Investigations (OI) interview of the individual the guardian represents and terminate the interview, unless the attendance or termination would impede the investigation.

- A guardian may provide information to facilitate an investigation. If the individual does not have a guardian, a family member may provide information, unless the individual expressly prohibits the family member from providing information.

- The guardian of an individual will be provided with a written summary of the findings of a DHS investigation involving an alleged incident of abuse, neglect or exploitation of the individual. If the individual does not have a guardian, a family member may receive the summary, unless the individual prohibits the family member from receiving information.

- The actual reports and records of an investigation shall be provided to the guardian or a person responsible for the welfare of an individual if the information is needed in connection with providing care to, treatment, an assessment, evaluation or supervision of the individual, and the Division of Developmental Disabilities (DDD) determines that providing the information is in the best interest of the individual.

Reporting Suspected Abuse, Neglect or Exploitation

- The law requires ALL persons employed by, or volunteering in, any DHS-funded, licensed or regulated program, or a person providing services with indirect State funding to an individual with a developmental disability to report incidents or suspicions of abuse, neglect or exploitation. Staff working in facilities, agencies or programs should follow their employer's reporting policies. The Division of Developmental Disabilities (DDD) also maintains a toll-free number to call to report abuse, neglect or exploitation. That number is 1-800-832-9173. When in doubt, REPORT.

- There are criminal penalties and a monetary fine for failing to report abuse, neglect or exploitation of an adult with a developmental disability. A person employed or volunteering who fails to report, but has reason to believe such an act has been committed, is a disorderly person under the law. A person convicted of this offense may be fined $350 for each day that the abuse, neglect or exploitation was not reported.

- A case manager or case manager's supervisor who fails to report abuse, neglect or exploitation, but has reason to believe such an act has been committed shall be guilty of a crime in the fourth degree, unless the abuse, neglect or exploitation results in death, in which case they will be guilty of a crime in the third degree.

Drug Testing

- Drug testing is required of direct care applicants and employees of any DHS-funded, licensed or regulated program for adults with developmental disabilities. This includes drug testing as a condition of employment, random testing while employed and drug testing for cause based on a concern or suspicion.

- If an applicant refuses the test or tests positive, the person will not be eligible for employment. A current staff member who refuses to undergo testing will be terminated from employment. If a staff member tests positive, at the agency's discretion, they may be referred for treatment or terminated from employment.

Are there Specific Requirements for State Developmental Centers, Service Providers and Programs?

- Marijuana
- Cocaine
- Opiates - including heroin, codeine/morphine, and prescribed semi-synthetic opioids
- Amphetamines/Methamphetamines, and

I acknowledge that refusal to authorize the collection and testing of my urine by the collection site and laboratory, or refusal to authorizing the above disclosure of the test results will be treated as a positive drug test.

I further acknowledge that a positive drug test will result in disciplinary action up to and including denial of employment or termination of employment.

In addition, I hereby knowingly and voluntarily release RCS, the collection site, the testing laboratory, and their respective officers, directors, employees, and agents from all claims, damages, losses, liabilities, costs, and expenses, including attorney fees, arising from or relating to such collection and testing and any disclosure of the results thereof, including, without limitation, the disclosure of any inaccurate or incomplete results, to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Step 1: Enter Personal Information

(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
Address		Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov.
City or town, state, and ZIP code

(c) ☐ Single or Married filing separately
☐ Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse
☐ Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Caution: To claim certain credits or deductions on your tax return, you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) are required to have a social security number valid for employment. See page 2 for more information.

TIP: Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine the most accurate withholding for the rest of the year if you: are completing this form after the beginning of the year; expect to work only part of the year; or have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), dependents, other income (not from jobs), deductions, or credits. Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for the most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than Step 2(b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, Step 2(b) is more accurate . . . . . ☐

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits

If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):

(a) Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,200 . . . . . 3(a) $

(b) Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 . . . 3(b) $

Add the amounts from Steps 3(a) and 3(b), plus the amount for other credits. Enter the total here . . . . . 3 $

Step 4: Other Adjustments

(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income . . . . . 4(a) $

(b) Deductions. Use the Deductions Worksheet on page 4 to determine the amount of deductions you may claim, which will reduce your withholding. (If you skip this line, your withholding will be based on the standard deduction.) Enter the result here . . 4(b) $

(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period . . 4(c) $

Exempt from withholding

I claim exemption from withholding for 2026, and I certify that I meet both of the conditions for exemption for 2026. See Exemption from withholding on page 2. I understand I will need to submit a new Form W-4 for 2027 . ☐

Step 5: Sign Here

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.

Employee's signature (This form is not valid unless you sign it.) Date

Employers Only

Employer's name and address	First date of employment	Employer identification number (EIN)

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2026 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2025 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2026. You had no federal income tax liability in 2025 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2025 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27a, 28, 29, and 30), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2026 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions by checking the box in the Exempt from withholding section. Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2027.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Are submitting this form after the beginning of the year;

2. Expect to work only part of the year;

3. Have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), or number of dependents, or changes in your deductions or credits;

4. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or

5. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

TIP: Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator to account for federal income tax that has already been withheld this year. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work. Submit a separate Form W-4 for each job.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount of tax withheld will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) must have the required social security number to claim certain credits. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4.

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 15, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2026 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for qualified tips, overtime compensation, and passenger vehicle loan interest; student loan interest; IRAs; and seniors. You (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) must have the required social security number to claim certain deductions. For additional eligibility requirements, see Pub. 501.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe when you file your tax return.

Step 2(b)—Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Instruction A - Wage Chart

This chart is designed to increase withholdings on your wages, if these wages will be taxed at a higher rate due to inclusion of other wages or income on your NJ-1040 return. It is not intended to provide withholding for other income or wages. If you need additional withholdings for other income or wages, use Line 5 on the NJ-W4. This Wage Chart applies to taxpayers who are married/civil union couple filing jointly, heads of households, or qualifying widow(er)/surviving civil union partner. Single individuals or married/civil union partners filing separate returns do not need to use this chart. If you have indicated filing status #2, 4 or 5 on the above NJ-W4 and your taxable income is greater than $50,000, you should strongly consider using the Wage Chart. (See the Rate Tables on the reverse side to estimate your withholding amount.)

HOW TO USE THE CHART

1) Find the amount of your wages in the left-hand column.

2) Find the amount of the total for all other wages (including your spouse's/civil union partner's wages) along the top row.

3) Follow along the row that contains your wages until you come to the column that contains the other wages.

4) This meeting point indicates the Withholding Table that best reflects your income situation.

5) If you have chosen this method, enter the "letter" of the withholding rate table on Line 3 of the NJ-W4.

NOTE: If your income situation substantially increases (or decreases) in the future, you should resubmit a revised NJ-W4 to your employer.
